

Contents

1. Introduction	1
2. Pain Management	4
• What is Pain Management Unit?	4
• What is the Need for Pain Management Units?	4
• What Kind of Patients Will Benefit?	5
• What Kind of Treatment?	5
• When to Seek Pain Specialist's Opinion?	5
• What is Interventional Pain Management?	5
• How Effectively do they Improve Quality of Life?	5
• What are the Common Disorders Managed in Pain Management Units?	7
3. Pain Treatment Services	9
• History	9
• Current Scenario	10
• Pain Practice	10
• Multidisciplinary Pain Clinics/Pain Centers	10
• Multidisciplinary Pain Centers	11
4. Establishing a Pain Treatment Facility	14
• Review the Competition	14
• Good Source of Advice	14
• Steps of Establishing the Units	15
5. Requirements of a Unit	17
• Project Report	17
• Designing and Layout	17
• Office/Consulting Rooms	19
• Procedure Room	20
• Drugs And Disposables	20
• Recovery Area	21
6. Designing of Department of Pain Management	22
• Introduction	22
• Multidisciplinary Pain Management Center	22

7. Common Pain Syndromes Seen in Pain Clinic/Center	26
• Head and Neck	26
• Trunk	28
• Extremities	31
• Others	33
• Acute Pain	33
8. Evaluation of the Chronic Pain Patients	37
• Medical and Psychological Evaluation/Assessment	37
9. Golden Rules of Interventional Pain Management	48
• Introduction	48
• Guidelines for Fluoroscopy	50
10. Documentation—Case Sheet and Consent Form	55
11. Economics of Pain Management (Coding and Billing)	62
Annexure A – Posture	67
Annexure B – Physical Exercises	75
Annexure C – Desk Stretches	89
Annexure D – Web Links	92
Index	95