

Contents

1. History of Hair Transplantation	1
History of Hair Restoration Surgery	1
2. Anatomy and Growth of Hair	4
Hair Embryology and Development	4
Anatomy of Hair	5
3. Hair Loss Consultation	14
History Taking	15
Examination	18
Laboratory Investigations	22
Treatment Plan	23
4. Medical Treatment for Hair Loss	31
Minoxidil	31
Finasteride	35
Other Medicines for Hair Loss	36
5. Design for Hair Transplant	41
Ideal Hairline	41
Characteristics of Ideal Hairline	42
Designing Male Hairline	44
Hairline Zones	52
Designing Female Hairline	53
Design for Vertex Restoration	54
Checking the Hairline	55
6. Anesthesia	56
Patient Evaluation for Anesthesia	56
Agents for Local Anesthesia	56
General Technique of Administration	57
Anesthesia Techniques in Hair Transplant	58
Anticipated Anesthetic Complications	61
Postoperative Pain Management	62
7. Donor Area: Evaluation and Harvest	64
Donor Assessment	64
Harvesting Technique	71
8. Follicular Dissection and Preservation	79
Equipment	79
Technique	81
Graft Preservation	84

9. Follicular Unit Extraction	86
Principle	86
Indications	87
Contraindications	88
Fox Test	88
Tools	89
Technical Principles	89
Steps	91
Postoperative Care	92
Complications and Drawbacks	92
10. Recipient Area: Evaluation and Implantation	97
Evaluation of Recipient Area	97
Classifications for Androgenic Alopecia	97
Assessment of Future Hair Loss	99
Preoperative Preparation	102
Postoperative Care	108
11. Special Area Transplant	110
Facial Hair Transplant	110
12. Hair Transplant Complications	119
Perioperative Complications	119
Esthetic Complications	124
Appendices	129
Appendix A: Patient Evaluation Sheet	129
Appendix B: Consent for Hair Transplant Procedure	132
Appendix C: Postoperative Advice	135
Index	139