

Contents

---

|                                                                                                                |          |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------|
| 1. General Emergency                                                                                    | 1 |
| Jayanta Bandyopadhyay, Jaydeep Choudhury                                                                |          |
| Approach to a Child in Pediatric Emergency Department 1                                                 |          |
| • Warning Symptoms in History 1                                                                                |          |
| • Warning Signs in Examination 1                                                                               |          |
| • Decision-Making in Pediatric Emergency 2                                                                     |          |
| – Normal Vital Signs 2                                                                                         |          |
| – Things to be Done in Emergency Room 3                                                                        |          |
| Early Assessment and Emergency Triage 4                                                                 |          |
| • Priority 1—Severe Life-threatening Emergency 4                                                               |          |
| • Priority 2—Acute Medical Problems or Distress 4                                                              |          |
| • Priority 3—Semiurgent Acute Medical Problems 4                                                               |          |
| • Priority 4—Nonurgent Acute Medical Problems 5                                                                |          |
| • Priority 5—Condition is Stable and will not Deteriorate as a Result of Waiting 5                             |          |
| 2. Resuscitation                                                                                        | 6 |
| Jayanta Bandyopadhyay, Joshi Anand Karketta, Jaydeep Choudhury, Mahasweta Chaudhuri, Sudipta Sekhar Das |          |
| Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation 6                                                                         |          |
| • Airway 6                                                                                                     |          |
| • Breathing 7                                                                                                  |          |
| – To Minimize Gastric Inflation 8                                                                              |          |
| • Circulation 8                                                                                                |          |
| – Characteristics of Good Chest Compressions 8                                                                 |          |
| – Recommended Chest Compression : Ventilation Ratio 9                                                          |          |
| • Vascular Access 9                                                                                            |          |
| – Fluids 9                                                                                                     |          |
| – Drugs 10                                                                                                     |          |
| Coma 13                                                                                                 |          |
| • Neurological Examination 13                                                                                  |          |
| – Level of Consciousness 13                                                                                    |          |
| – Attitude and Posturing 13                                                                                    |          |
| – Respiration 14                                                                                               |          |
| – Brainstem Function 14                                                                                        |          |
| • Investigations 15                                                                                            |          |
| • Management 16                                                                                                |          |
| – Airway 16                                                                                                    |          |
| – Breathing 16                                                                                                 |          |
| – Circulation 17                                                                                               |          |

- Hypoglycemia 17
- Hyperglycemia 17
- Drugs 17
- Specific Therapy 17
- Emergency Management of Raised Intracranial Pressure 17
- Antiseizure Medications in Coma 19
- Choice of Empiric Antimicrobials 19
- Prognosis 19

Anaphylaxis 21

- Management 21
  - Airway, Breathing and Circulation (A, B and C) 21
  - Treatment of Choice 21
  - Hypotension 21
  - Antihistaminics 21
  - Systemic Corticosteroid 21
  - Salbutamol 22

Fluid and Electrolyte Balance 24

- General Guidelines for Rehydration 24
- Rehydration in Acute Gastroenteritis 24
  - Principles 25
  - Hypovolemia or Shock 25
  - Deficit Replacement 25
  - Maintenance Requirements 26
  - Volume 26
  - Ongoing Loss 26
- Hyponatremic Dehydration 27
  - Asymptomatic Hyponatremia 27
  - Symptomatic Hyponatremia 28
  - Factitious Hyponatremia 28
- Hypernatremic Dehydration 29
  - Hypovolemic Hypernatremia 29
  - Euvolemic Hypernatremia 29
  - Clinical Features 29
  - Management 30
- Hyperkalemia 30
  - Etiology 31
  - Clinical Features 31
  - ECG Changes 31
  - Management 31
- Hypokalemia 31
  - Etiology 32
  - Clinical Features 32
  - ECG Changes 32
  - Management 32
- Hypocalcemia 32
  - Clinical Features 32
  - ECG Changes 32
  - Management 32

Blood Component Transfusion 34

- Red Blood Cell 35
  - Indications 36
- Platelets 36
  - Indications 36

|                                                               |           |
|---------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|
| • Plasma 37                                                   |           |
| – Indications 37                                              |           |
| • Complications of Transfusion 38                             |           |
| • Miscellaneous 40                                            |           |
| 3. Sedation, Analgesia, Intubation and Procedures      | 41 |
| Jayanta Bandyopadhyay, Mahasweta Chaudhuri             |           |
| Basics of Intubation 41                                |           |
| • Indications for intubation 42                               |           |
| • Equipment 43                                                |           |
| – Selection of Laryngoscope Blade 43                          |           |
| – Endotracheal Tube Size 43                                   |           |
| – Pharmacological Control Over Intubation 44                  |           |
| • Preparing for the Procedure 45                              |           |
| • Positioning the Patient 45                                  |           |
| • Procedure 45                                                |           |
| 4. Neonatal Emergencies                                | 47 |
| Jaydeep Choudhury, Jayanta Bandyopadhyay               |           |
| Neonatal Emergencies 47                                |           |
| • Severe Hypothermia 47                                       |           |
| – Temperature Range 47                                        |           |
| – Management 48                                               |           |
| • Seizures 48                                                 |           |
| – Management 48                                               |           |
| • Hypoglycemia 49                                             |           |
| – Management 49                                               |           |
| • Neonatal Hemorrhage 49                                      |           |
| – Management 49                                               |           |
| • Neonatal Apnea 50                                           |           |
| – Management 50                                               |           |
| • Air Leak 51                                                 |           |
| – Management 51                                               |           |
| Bleeding Neonate 53                                    |           |
| • Baseline Investigations 53                                  |           |
| • Management 53                                               |           |
| – Supportive Care 53                                          |           |
| – Neonate in Shock 53                                         |           |
| – Neonate Not in Shock 53                                     |           |
| – Specific Treatment 53                                       |           |
| Neonatal Collapse 56                                   |           |
| • Management 56                                               |           |
| 5. Respiratory Emergencies                             | 58 |
| Jayanta Bandyopadhyay, Jaydeep Choudhury, Saheli Misra |           |
| Respiratory Distress and Noisy Breathing 58            |           |
| • Nonrespiratory Causes of Respiratory Distress 58            |           |
| • Noisy Breathing 58                                          |           |
| – Approach to Noisy Breathing 58                              |           |
| Croup 60                                               |           |
| • Management 60                                               |           |
| Acute Epiglottitis 62                                  |           |
| • Management 62                                               |           |

- Recommended Antibiotics 62
  - Chemoprophylaxis Recommended 63
  - Chemoprophylaxis not Recommended 63

Bronchiolitis 64

- Management 64

Acute Severe Asthma 66

- Management 66
- Good Response Group 67
- Signs of High Risk 68
- Poor Response Group 68
  - Improvement at the End of 6 Hours 68
  - Condition Unchanged 69
  - Clinical Deterioration 69
- First Attack of Status Asthmaticus 69

6. Cardiovascular Emergencies

70

Mahasweta Chaudhuri, Jaydeep Choudhury, Jayanta Bandyopadhyay, Joshi Anand Karketta, Amitabha Chattopadhyay, Biswajit Bandopadhyay

Cyanotic Spell 70

- Management 70
  - Acute Care 70
  - Ongoing Care 72

Heart Failure 73

- General Management 73
- Specific Management 73
- Important Considerations 73

Abnormal Pulse Rate or Rhythm 76

- General Management of Arrhythmia 76
  - Airway 76
  - Breathing 76
  - Circulation 77
- Bradycardia 77
- Tachycardia 78
  - QRS Complexes 78
  - Narrow Complex Tachycardias 78
- Supraventricular Tachycardia 80
  - Management 80
- Wide-Complex Tachycardia 83
  - Approach to a Child with VT 83
- Defibrillator for Cardioversion 84
  - Paddle Size 84
  - Interface 86
  - Energy Dose 86
  - Technique 86

7. Gastrointestinal Emergencies

87

Jaydeep Choudhury, Jayanta Bandyopadhyay

Acute Abdominal Pain 87

- Important Considerations 87

Upper Gastrointestinal Bleeding 89

- Management 89
  - Immediate 89

|                                                                       |            |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| – Restore and Maintain Intravascular Volume                           | 90         |
| – Re-establish a Normal Oxygen Carrying Capacity                      | 90         |
| – Determination of Source and Site of Bleeding                        | 90         |
| – Treatment Options Available for Acute Variceal Hemorrhage           | 92         |
| Fulminant Hepatic Failure                                      | 93  |
| • Management                                                          | 93         |
| – Follow-up and Monitoring                                            | 95         |
| – Temporary Hepatic Support                                           | 95         |
| 8. Renal Emergencies                                           | 96  |
| Jaydeep Choudhury, Saheli Misra, Jayanta Bandyopadhyay         |            |
| Acute Renal Failure                                            | 96  |
| • Assessment of Severity                                              | 96         |
| • Determination of Underlying Cause                                   | 96         |
| – Baseline Investigations                                             | 96         |
| • Management                                                          | 97         |
| • Diet                                                                | 98         |
| • Infection                                                           | 100        |
| • Indications of Dialysis in ARF                                      | 100        |
| Hypertensive Crisis                                            | 101 |
| • Common Causes                                                       | 101        |
| • Management                                                          | 101        |
| Hematuria                                                      | 106 |
| • Management                                                          | 106        |
| – Important Considerations                                            | 106        |
| 9. Neurological Emergencies                                    | 108 |
| Jayanta Bandyopadhyay, Jaydeep Choudhury                       |            |
| Status Epilepticus                                             | 108 |
| • Management                                                          | 108        |
| – Initial Control of Seizure                                          | 109        |
| – Stage I                                                             | 109        |
| – Stage II                                                            | 109        |
| – Stage III                                                           | 110        |
| – Stage IV (ICU)                                                      | 110        |
| Rapid Onset Limb Weakness                                      | 112 |
| • Management                                                          | 112        |
| – Immediate Management                                                | 112        |
| – Specific Management                                                 | 112        |
| – Long-term Management                                                | 113        |
| 10. Endocrinal Emergencies                                     | 115 |
| Jaydeep Choudhury, Joshi Anand Karketta, Jayanta Bandyopadhyay |            |
| Diabetic Ketoacidosis                                          | 115 |
| • Treatment                                                           | 115        |
| – Fluid                                                               | 115        |
| – Electrolytes                                                        | 116        |
| – Monitoring Initial Progress                                         | 117        |
| • Complications During Treatment                                      | 118        |
| – Cerebral Edema                                                      | 118        |
| – Treatment of Suspected Cerebral Edema                               | 118        |
| – Further Care                                                        | 118        |

Hypoglycemia in Neonates and Children 120

- Management 120
  - Management for Refractory Hypoglycemia 120
  - Tapering 120
  - Drugs Causing Hypoglycemia 121

11. Environmental Problems*124Tapan Kumar Ghosh, Jaydeep Choudhury, Jayanta BandyopadhyayAnimal Bites 124

- WHO Classification of Bites 124
  - Management 125
  - The Steps of Management 125
- Rabies Immunoglobulin (RIG) 126
- Antirabies Vaccines 127
  - Types of Antirabies Vaccines 127
  - Intramuscular (IM) Regimen of Cell Culture Antirabies Vaccine 127
  - Intradermal (ID) Regimen of Cell Culture Antirabies Vaccine 127
  - ID Vaccine Regimen 128
- Pre-exposure Schedule 128
  - Schedule of Pre-exposure Vaccination 128

Snake Bite 130

- Management 130
  - First Aid 130
  - Local Wound Management 131
  - Optimize ABC (Airway, Breathing and Circulation) 131
  - Specific Treatment 131
  - Indications 131
  - Skin Test 131
  - Pretreatment 131
  - Antivenin 132
- Neuroparalysis 132
- Supportive Treatment 132

Near Drowning 133

- Prehospital Intervention 133
- Emergency Department Management 133
- Hospital Admission Criteria 134
- Hypothermia 134
- Cerebral Edema 134
- General Measures for Management 135

Burn 136

- First AID: To be Done at the Site of Burn 136
- Life Support 136
- Degree of Burn 136
- Admission Criteria for Pediatric Burns Patients 136
- Fluid Resuscitation 137
  - Parkland Formula 137
  - Sedation 137
  - Infection 137
  - Stress Ulcer 138
  - Topical Treatment 138
  - Complications 138

|                                                                            |            |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| 12. Poisoning                                                       | 139 |
| Jayanta Bandyopadhyay, Jaydeep Choudhury, Joshi Anand Karketta      |            |
| General Management Principles and Approach to Unknown Poisoning 139 |            |
| • Management 139                                                           |            |
| • ABC 139                                                                  |            |
| – Surface Decontamination 139                                              |            |
| – Gastrointestinal Decontamination 140                                     |            |
| – Enhanced Elimination 140                                                 |            |
| – Antidotes 140                                                            |            |
| Various Poisonings 141                                              |            |
| • Paracetamol 141                                                          |            |
| – Management 141                                                           |            |
| • Iron 142                                                                 |            |
| – Management 142                                                           |            |
| • Organophosphorus Compound 144                                            |            |
| – Management 144                                                           |            |
| 13. Foreign Body                                                    | 146 |
| Jayanta Bandyopadhyay, Jaydeep Choudhury                            |            |
| Airway Foreign Body 146                                             |            |
| • Management 146                                                           |            |
| • Management of Partial Airway Obstruction 146                             |            |
| – Important Consideration 146                                              |            |
| Button Battery Ingestion 151                                        |            |
| • Mode of action 151                                                       |            |
| • Treatment 152                                                            |            |
| – Battery in the Nose or Ear 154                                           |            |
| 14. Psychiatric Behavioral and Social Issues                        | 155 |
| Jaydeep Choudhury                                                   |            |
| Psychiatric Assessment for Nonpsychiatrists 155                     |            |
| • Mental State Examination 155                                             |            |
| 15. Trauma and Orthopedics                                          | 157 |
| Jayanta Bandyopadhyay, Jaydeep Choudhury, Anirban Chatterjee        |            |
| Head Trauma 157                                                     |            |
| • Immediate priority 157                                                   |            |
| – Airway 157                                                               |            |
| – Circulation 158                                                          |            |
| – Cervical Spine 158                                                       |            |
| – Assess 158                                                               |            |
| Acute Neck Stiffness 161                                            |            |
| • Life-threatening Conditions 161                                          |            |
| • Causes of Acute Stiff Neck 161                                           |            |
| – Diagnosis of Acute Stiff Neck 161                                        |            |
| Acute Painful Hip 163                                               |            |
| • Transient Synovitis 163                                                  |            |
| – Management 163                                                           |            |
| • Septic Arthritis 163                                                     |            |
| – Management 163                                                           |            |

- Acute Osteomyelitis 164
  - Management 164
- Slipped Upper Femoral Epiphysis (SUFE) 164
  - Management 164
- Other Conditions 164

Spinal Cord Injury and Spinal Cord Injury without Radiographic Abnormality (SCIWORA) 166

- Initial Assessment 166
  - Management 166

Blunt Trauma 168

- Basic Principles of Trauma Management 168
- Management 168
- Abdominal Trauma 168
  - Liver Trauma 168
  - Splenic Trauma 169
  - Pancreatic Trauma 170
  - Renal Trauma 170

Fractures: Initial Stabilization and Management 171

- Management Goals 171
- Injuries in the Appendicular Skeleton:
  - Common Upper Extremity Injuries 171
    - Fall on the Outstretched Hand 171
    - Fall Directly on the Elbow 173
  - Immobilization Methods and Optimum Position for Injuries to the Upper Limb 175
  - Injuries in the Appendicular Skeleton:
    - Common Lower Extremity Injuries 175
    - Immobilization Methods and Optimum Position for Injuries to the Lower Limb 177
  - Injuries to the Axial Skeleton 177

16. Otolaryngological Emergencies

178

Jaydeep Choudhury

Otolaryngological Issues 178

- Acute Otitis Externa 179
  - Management 179
  - Prevention 180
- Acute Otitis Media (AOM) 180
  - Management 180
- Foreign Body in the Nose and Ear 181
  - Management 181
- Epistaxis 181
  - Management 182
- Sinusitis 182
  - Acute Bacterial Sinusitis 182
- Oral Cavity Lesions 182
  - Herpetic Gingivostomatitis 183
  - Herpangina 183

17. Dermatological Emergencies 184

*Mahasweta Chaudhuri, Jayanta Bandyopadhyay,
Amiya Kumar Mukhopadhyay*

Fever with Rash 184

- Different Forms of Skin Rash 185
- Distribution 185
- Management 186
  - Unwell Child with Fever and Petechiae/Purpura 186
  - Principles in the Management of Meningococcal Disease 187

Urticaria and Angioedema 189

- Management 190
- Moderate to Mild Urticaria 190
- Chronic Urticaria 190

Stevens-Johnson Syndrome (SJS) 192

- Management 192

Toxic Epidermal Necrolysis 194

- Management 195

18. Infections 196

Jayanta Bandyopadhyay, Jaydeep Choudhury

Fever without Focus 196

- Stabilization 196
  - Approach 196

Severe and Complicated Malaria 199

- Management 199
  - Supportive 199
  - Antimalarial Chemotherapy 199
- Management of Complications 200
  - Severe Anemia 200
  - Hypoglycemia 201
  - Cerebral Malaria 201
  - Hyperpyrexia 201
  - Hyperparasitemia 201
  - Lactic Acidosis 201
  - Circulatory Collapse 201
  - DIC 202

Dengue 203

- Management 203

Community-acquired Pneumonia 205

- Management 205

Acute Meningitis 208

- Management 208
- Antibiotic Therapy 208
  - Full Term Neonates <1 Week 208
  - 1 Week to 3 Months 208
  - Children >3 Months 208
  - Add Vancomycin 208

- Duration of Antibiotics 208
- Supportive Care and Monitoring 209
- Prophylaxis 209

Urinary Tract Infection 210

- Treatment 210
  - Indication for Admission 210
- Antibiotic Therapy 210
  - Duration of Therapy 210
  - Prophylactic Antibiotics 212

19. Toxic Shock Syndrome 213

Mahasweta Chaudhuri, Jayanta Bandyopadhyay

Toxic Shock Syndrome 213

- Management 213
  - Staphylococcal Toxic Shock Syndrome 213
  - Streptococcal Toxic Shock Syndrome 215

20. Medicolegal Issues 216

Jaydeep Choudhury

Medicolegal Issues in Emergency Room 216

- Documentation in Emergency Ward 216
- Consent in Emergencies 217
- Medical Negligence 217
- Informing the Police 217
- Breaking Bad News 218
- Death Certificate 218
  - Child Brought Dead Who was Under Treatment at the Hospital 218
  - Child Brought Dead by the Parents 218
  - Child Brought Dead by a Mob 218

Index 221