

CONTENTS

---

|                                                                                            |     |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 1. Introduction, Definition, Aim and ScopeConservative Dentistry and Endodontics ..... | 1   |
| 2. Classification of Cavities .....                                                        | 4   |
| 3. Nomenclature .....                                                                      | 10  |
| 4. Various Chair Side Positions .....                                                      | 18  |
| 5. Tooth Numbering Systems .....                                                           | 24  |
| 6. Restorations .....                                                                      | 30  |
| 7. Operative Instruments .....                                                             | 32  |
| 8. Rotary Cutting Instruments .....                                                        | 57  |
| 9. Cavity and Cavity Preparation .....                                                     | 73  |
| 10. Matrices, Retainer and Wedges .....                                                    | 79  |
| 11. Separators-Different Methods ofSeparation of Teeth .....                           | 93  |
| 12. Finishing and Polishing of Restorations .....                                          | 100 |
| 13. Management of Deep Carious Lesions:Pulp Capping and Pulpotomy .....                | 108 |
| 14. Access Cavity and Brief Introductionof Root Canal Instruments .....                | 114 |
| Index .....                                                                         | 137 |