

Contents

1. Introduction to Psychology	1
• History and Origin of Science of Psychology	1
• Scope of Psychology	4
• Branches of Pure Psychology	4
• Branches of Applied Psychology	7
• Sub-fields in Psychology	9
• Psychology Relevance to Nursing	10
• Career in Psychology	13
• Methods of Psychological Assessment	14
2. Biology of Behavior	19
• Body-Mind Relationship: Modulation Process in Health and Illness	19
• Genetics and Behavior	20
• Nervous System	29
• The Neuron	31
• Psychology of Sensation	32
• Muscular and Glandular Behavior	34
• Nature of Behavior of the Organism	35
• Integrated Response	35
3. Cognitive Processes	38
• Areas of Cognitive Processes	39
• Attention	39
• Perception	46
• Learning	55
• Memory	67
• Thinking	79
• Intelligence	85
• Aptitude	93
4. Motivation and Emotional Processes	100
• Motivation, Emotion, and Stress	100
• Motivation: Meaning, Concepts, Type, Theories, Motives, and Behavior, Conflict Resolution	100
• Emotion	116
• Stress and Stressor	120
• Attitude	123
• Psychometric Assessment of Emotions and Attitudes	124
• Alterations in Emotions	125

5. Personality	128
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Type Approach 129 • Trait Theories of Personality 132 • Learning and Behaviorist Theories of Personality 136 • Psychometric Assessment of Personality 139
6. Developmental Psychology	147
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Development of Psychology of People at Different Ages (Infancy to Old Age) 147 • Psychology of Vulnerable Individuals—Challenged, Women, Sick, etc. 152 • Psychology of Groups 155
7. Mental Hygiene and Mental Health	159
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Origin of the Mental Hygiene Movement 159 • Concepts of Mental Hygiene and Mental Health 159 • Characteristics of Mentally Healthy Person 163 • Warning Signs of Poor Mental Health 164 • Promotion of Mental Health: Strategies and Services 165 • Prevention 165 • India—Mental Health Facilities 168 • Ego Defense Mechanisms 169 • Personal and Social Adjustment 173 • Guidance and Counseling 174
8. Psychological Assessment and Tests	178
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Psychological Tests and Assessments 178 • Psychological Tests 179 • Development of Psychological Testing 181 • Characteristics of Psychological Testing 182 • The Principles of Psychological Assessment 183 • Uses of Psychological Tests 184 • Nature and Use of Psychological Tests 184 • Professional Psychology 185 • Forensic Psychology and Legal System 186 • Role of a Nurse in Psychological Assessment 186
9. Application of Soft Skill	189
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Concept of Soft Skill 189 • Types of Soft Skill—Visual, Aural, and Communication Skills 190 • Way of Communication 192 • Building Relationship with Client and Society 192 • Interpersonal Skill (Interpersonal Relationship) 193 • Barriers and Strategies to Overcome Barriers 193 • Survival Strategies—Managing Time 193 • Applying Soft Skills in Workplace 194 • Use of Soft Skills in Nursing 195

10. Self-empowerment	197
• Dimensions in Self-empowerment	197
• Planning in Decision-making	197
• Creative Input	198
• Sources for Novelty	198
• Support of Working Group	198
• Group Decision-making	198
• Importance of Women's Empowerment on Society	198
• Professional Etiquette in Personal Grooming	199
• Role of Nursing in Empowering Other	200
 Previous University Examination Papers	 203
Index	213